New, Richly-Bound, Matched Library Volumes Use Everyday Situations to Teach Science, Business, Cultural and School Subjects; Assure Complete Mastery for Faster Job Advancement; Better School Grades, Richer, Fuller Living—In Just 15 Minutes a Day!

Now—the famous, proven MADE SIMPLE method offers you an education worth hundreds of dollars for pennies a day! Complete practical instruction in science, business and cultural subjects that you use every day for the children in school, mother at home, dad in his work and everybody in all their social contacts.

You can master these subjects in as little as 15 minutes a day, in weeks instead of years, with these books that are recommended by parents and noted educators for all age groups.

Learn Whenever You Want—Like Having Private Instructors In Your Own Home

This MADE SIMPLE SELF-TEACHING set is the only encyclopedia that makes important subjects part of your general knowledge instead of having to look in books to solve every problem. It covers practical, useful subjects in everyday language. It's like having private instructors in your own home. Learn at your own pace. No outside work, nothing else to buy. The books start from the beginning, assume no previous knowledge and lead you quickly and easily through the entire subject. Prepared by experts for adults working without supervision, they also perfectly supplement classroom texts, which contain confusing technical language.

Beautiful Library Volumes Perfect for Learning, Brush-Up, Permanent Reference

Whether you want to learn for the first time, refresh subjects you forgot or use for ever-ready reference, you could find no better or price. These handsome 7¼ x 10½ inch, 24-carat gold imprinted, matched library volumes are not digests or outlines. Every point is made absolutely clear by illustrations and simple step-by-step explanations, using everyday situations. No half-answers to confuse you, no cross-references to make you use several books to get information. All the books teach you naturally, without memorizing long lists of rules.

Complete Explanations, Simple Illustrations Make Every Point Clear—No Previous Knowledge of the Subject Required

Here's how complicated subjects are MADE SIMPLE. In PHYSICS MADE SIMPLE, you are shown this simple home experiment, which costs nothing. Hold one edge of a letter paper against your chin, just below lower lip, with the paper hanging over and down. Blow above the paper and it will rise as if pulled up in the air stream. This simple principle makes airplanes fly and teaches us to make moving objects move quickly and easily. Other books give you Bernoulli's Law, molecular action and other confusing terms. By the time you get to the experiment, if there was one, you wouldn't understand it. Here you read a simple explanation, do the experiment—and then learn the technical terms, so you learn naturally, by doing, without memorizing anything. This has worked for many people who thought they were more hopeless than you may think you are.

You would pay many times the price for much less beautiful and useful encyclopedias. But these books, with sample military and civil service tests, hundreds of illustrations, hundreds of safe, easy home experiments, thousands of pages of clear, concise, valuable instruction and self-tests with answers in the back, will be USED, ENJOYED and ADMIRED by all your family and friends.

Now only a few pennies a day! Equal to hundreds of dollars worth of School courses

THE SILVER SPURS

THE valley was open at either end, and a mild little stream picked its way through it like a passing pilgrim. It flowed directly through the big cow-barn, and the horses in the corrals even had a loop of it to drink from.

Hammers clashed down suddenly in the forge in the ranch house back yard, with red-hot iron squeezed against the anvil again and again. An iron triangle had rung once for breakfast. Suddenly it rang again. Bunkhouse crew and family dropped whatever they were doing and trooped into the big kitchen of the Bar O ranch. The table . . . a trestle twenty feet long, had already been laid. Its ancient boards were literally snapping with the weight of breakfast, and in particular hot biscuits made that morning deliberately and approximately to the consistency of lead.

"Holds you down in the away-back," was Kade Juniper's remark. He was foreman of the bunkhouse crew, and ought to have known better, and did. The truth was the weight in your stomach didn't hold you down, but it kept the stomach level. And that, when a man is vibrating like a tuning fork atop a ton or so of plunging steer or a half-ton of bucking bronco-flesh, was decisive.

Mr. Carl Hardy who owned twenty thousand acres of the Bar O, said a short grace, and the feeding began. The boasting followed. It was very mild boasting, indulged in only by the men at the table. This did not include, for the moment, Carl Junior, six years old and exceedingly silent, though anxious not to be.

"We'll all win," Mr. Hardy said. He glanced down the row of men building quirleys after their final cup of coffee and they all nodded vigorously. Last year they had won two prizes; Phil Hardy, the ranch boss's fifteen-year-old son by staying on a highly irritated bronc, and Vince Merkin, a bunkhouse waddy for doing the same on a steer.

"Can I win, daddy?" Junior asked suddenly.

Everybody smiled through the smoke-blued air. Junior was the favorite of the ranch. He was smarter than two whips put together, as long in the legs as a lariat, and full of wild ideas.

It had only been yesterday that he had seriously discussed with Kade Juniper a project for carving a coracle out of the trunk of a fallen tree and setting sail on the meandering stream. He had the notion that it must lead somewhere to even more exciting places than the valley. At first, overwhelmed by the scope of the plan, Kade had been inclined to agree with him, then in a burst of inspiration, said it was all right with him providing Junior cut the coracle himself with a carefully dulled penknife he had somewhere found. This was a job that for a tribe of woodpeckers would have taken two years. By that time, Kade knew, Junior would have grown bigger, and the outside world shrunk, in comparison, by size and glamor. He wanted no part of Junior's grandiose projects for a while. He remembered one project which involved a complicated weathervane made of sheet tin. There had been another project involving winter feeding by a kind of beltline; it had looked practical but only succeeded in annoying a lot of calves. Junior, he also knew, was all right, provided you took him seriously enough to realize his projects were too practical to be sensible.

"He has imagination," Mr. Hardy said proudly, looking at his son. "But to win, you'd have to enter an animal. It must be the best of its class, and you have to be absolute master of that animal. The only one I can think of is Spot." He fondled the head of his son's dog, as it rested momentarily on his knee. "Unfortunately, Spot does not qualify. It must also be an animal completely necessary to Western life." He grinned. "But don't worry, Carl, we'll bring home some Silver Spurs."

There was silence for a moment. If anybody had taken the sudden gleam that leaped into Carl Junior's eye seriously . . . he should have. But no one did. Gleamings were constantly blazing up in Junior's eyes, occasioned by his fertile brain. They always meant time for necessary chores taken out of the day's work . . . for it is impossible to resist a blonde-haired, blue-eyed six-year-old with lots of charm.

"Maybe I'll bring the Silver Spurs home," Junior said simply, and everybody laughed good-naturedly.

During the general rising and preparations after breakfast, no one noticed Junior at the upstairs telephone. What he was doing might have curdled a whole pail of milk, for he turned the hand-crank of the phone and called rodeo headquarters in town. Then he made a slight addition to the entries in the Bar O list, under the name of Carl Hardy, Jr.

It was some three hours after breakfast that Carl Junior, his mother and the rest of the household followed the earlier departure to town of Mr. Hardy, the bunkhouse crew and their livestock. They traveled in the big surrey. In his hands, Junior carried a small box which had once contained chocolates. His mother, indeed, had asked him what was in the box, but received only a slightly injured glance which she interpreted as a strong desire for privacy. Knowing all boys, and how their feelings must often be considered sacred, she asked nothing further.

The first day of the rodeo was under full swing when the surrey pulled into the midst of a good many other parked surreys and buckboards. Carl, his mother and the others crowded into their reserved seats. The bronco-busting events were over, and steer-busting was about to begin. This year, none of the Bar O ranch had taken the Silver Spurs in bronc-busting. They were all downhearted, and when their turn came, and one by one they were heaved off broadbacked steers, a pall of gloom began to settle over the whole Bar O bunkhouse crew. With Kade Juniper's downfall, all chances ended, and the group repaired to the Hardy family box as pairs of silver spurs were presented to the winners of the events.

It was at this moment that the announcer bawled, "Next entry, Carl Hardy Junior! Presenting Carl Hardy Junior, and . . . Susy!"

There was a moment of silence. Heads all over the arena swiveled from side to side seeking Susy, as did even the announcer's head. Then a dozen pair of Bar O eyes turned on Junior. He beckoned to Kade Juniper, pulled him down to ear level and whispered something. As he kept whispering, Kade's face became blanker and blanker. Then the foreman suddenly started to grin. Presently he was chuckling. He took the box Junior handed him, vaulted the high railing and walked over to the announcer. There the process was repeated as he whispered into the announcer's ear; first a blank look, then a grin, then a progression into almost convulsive merriment. The announcer consulted with the judges who also were left smiling, turned and held up a hand for silence.

"In connection with Carl Hardy Junior's entry, Susy, the judges feel that the entry satisfies all requirements. The animal belongs to Carl Junior, he has full control of it, and it is a prime example of its own type. Also, being the only entry in its class, Carl and Susy automatically win the contest by decision of the judges!"

"What is Susy?" cried a voice from the stands.

The announcer held up the box, removed the top. There seemed to be nothing in it but a patch of prairie grass.

"Susy is inside this box!" The announcer shouted. "She . . . or he . . . is a Western animal, without which cattle or sheep ranching, the backbones of the West, would be impossible. Susy helps make grass grow, and without grass, we'd have no cattle or sheep feed." He paused for a moment, and then, grinning broadly, continued shouting, "Susy is an earthworm!"

Once more, for the space of a minute, there was full silence, blank faces and dawning comprehension. Then a blast of applause and laughter shook the stands. Kade Juniper hurried over to Carl Junior bearing a pair of gleaming, glittering silver spurs.

But it was Carl Hardy Junior's father who handed him the spurs.

"Pardner," Mr. Hardy said to his son, and his eyes twinkled with a little more than humor, "you're hired!"

CAN BUILD YOU A MAGNIFICENT NEW HE-MAN-MUSCLED BODY IN JUST TEN MINUTES A DAY—with absolutely NO weights—NO bar-bells—NO EXERCISE AT ALL!

Yes! If the girls LAUGH at you now when you take off your shirt—they'll be breaking down the doors to get dates with you—once they've seen the rugged DYNAFLEX BODY I can give you! I'll build you a tough brutal massive body—shoulders clad with solid inches of he-man BRAWN. I'll give you bulging biceps, trip-hammer fists, power-packed legs, and a chest that will have you popping the buttons off your shirt with pride!

(—says MIKE MARVEL, "Builder of Champion Bodies")

Mike Marvel

ARE YOU WEAK, ALWAYS TIRED, LACK PEP?

Whether you're thin and scrawny, or sagging with unsightly fat—my secret DYNAFLEX method will cram pep, vigor and red-blooded vitality into your body exhausted body. Once DYNAFLEX makes you a two-fisted dynamo of manly beauty, rippling with power, glowing with magnetic sex-appeal—you'll be bursting with get-up-and-go. Man, you'll be really ALIVE—tingling with zest and zip—roaring energy—for the first time in years!

PROOF!

"I tried two other systems, before my buddy told me about DYNAFLEX. It really works—and how! I've put two inches of solid muscle on my biceps, three inches on my chest. It's like magic!"
L. C., New York City

"I never thought you could build terrific muscles without exercise or weights. Started DYNAFLEX two weeks ago, and am building a great physique."
E. G., Detroit, Mich.

"DYNAFLEX is the best yet. Only three weeks, and I have more fates than I can handle! I am telling all my pals about DYNAFLEX."
F. B., Chicago, Ill.

ARE YOU ASHAMED OF YOUR BODY NOW?

Pal—do YOURSELF a favor! Take a good long look in a mirror. Do you see a puny, starved body—scrawny arms—bony shoulders —a flabby stomach and skinny legs? Do girls laugh and fellows grin when you take off your shirt?

BELIEVE IT OR NOT—I can add solid pounds of rippling, steely he-man MEAT to your body! I can take those skeleton arms and PACK EVERY INCH with explosive MAN-MUSCLE. I can take that raved-in chest and build on six rugged inches of strong steel MAN-SIZED BRAWN. I can clothe your skinny frame with GIANT RIPPLING DYNAFLEX MUSCLES that will have the girls gasping with envy and admiration! And with NO tiring exercise, NO high-priced bar-bells or gym equipment!

Or is your problem a body sagging with soft rolls of unhealthy, unbecoming FAT? Puny muscles—sagging stomach—blasted face—arms heavy with layers of BLUBBER? Are you ASHAMED to go to the beach and let them see your "97 pound PHYSIQUE"?

If so, wake up fella! THIS IS IT! I will peel off that fat and give you a lean virile body—ripping with muscle and with a chest of hard tough handsome muscles. I can take you into a healthy, streamlined HERCULES—bursting with dynamic manly strength. I'll give you a beet red-hard midsection—legs muscled like rolled steel springs—and pack solid DYNAMITE into your fists. And give you a rugged handsome build prim-full of the magnetic SUPER-BODY SEX-APPEAL girls are hungry for. And with NO starvation diets—NO fatiguing calisthenics—NO expensive health-foods.

HOW DYNAFLEX BUILDS BEAUTIFUL BODIES

DYNAFLEX is the modern miracle of body-building. It takes no tiresome exercise, "secret" diets, pitiful dumb-bells, weights or bar-bells. DYNAFLEX is the amazing discovery of a West German Doctor whose research into the Science of Strength found a thrilling new way to build GIANT BRAWNY MUSCLES in ten minutes a day. With DYNAFLEX you "Rig" each muscle once—in a certain way—that is more effective than if you exercised that muscle 25, 50, even 100 times the old-fashioned way. With DYNAFLEX you get these results in ten minutes than after hours of grunting and groaning, lifting heavy weights. DYNAFLEX coaxes each muscle in your body to bring out its round, steely fullness and satiny symmetry. DYNAFLEX packs that muscle with glowing vibrant, virile strength and energy—FAST, in ten minutes a day! Just cover your body and head with healthy rippling muscle—give you a deep, powerful chest—solid inches of muscle in your wrists—tough, slim midsection—and trim, steel-spring legs—simply thru the "Rig-FLEXING" each muscle once a day!

There's nothing easier with DYNAFLEX and weight-lifting method . . . but why bother? Why waste time and money, why sweat and strain your way to a streamlined symmetrical HANDSOME STRONG body, when you can do it better—bigger—faster—easier with the DYNAFLEX SECRET?

STRONG-MAN SEX-APPEAL ATTRACTS GIRLS

Be honest, fella—you KNOW you envy the boy with the virile, magnificent build. Every man and boy secretly admires a broad brawny back, a solid man-muscled chest, handsome rippling arms, a midsection rippling with tough, steely sinews; a narrow waist, virile hips and springy, power-packed legs. Girls go for a fellow with TWO-FISTED SUPER-BODY SEX-APPEAL . . . and they only laugh at skinny guys with "aches"!

Let me give you a glowing new body, brimming over with energy and irresistible inches of solid muscle on your chest—he-man appeal. I can build those inches of beef and brawn on your shoulders. I will build you a handsome super-body of virile strength, give you a crushing grip, legs crammed with steel springs, and lean tough rock-solid punch-proof midsection. Pack your body with energy and thrilling vitality that will have girls falling at your feet.
